

Fig. S1: The eConsult process through the hospital application: A) The gastroenterologist enters relevant clinical data into the electronic patient record; B) The gastroenterologist uploads photos of the skin lesions; C) The dermatologist fills in either the treatment for the patient or issues an appointment for an in-person consultation.

